Instructors: Cô Hồng, Cô Chi, Cô Diệp
Coordinator: Cô Hồng
Office:
Telephone:
Office Hours: 1:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. (Mons, Tues, & Thurs)

COURSE OUTLINE

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
Upon completion of this course, students will be able:

- Communicate in Vietnamese to handle their needs adequately if they travel or/and live in Vietnam
- Talk about a variety of topics of common interest and cultural related issues
- Present and discuss simple topics or topics of interest with other students in class
- Write essays and simple thematic papers in Vietnamese

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS:
The overarching methodology will be based on a communicative, performance-based approach that gives students ample opportunity to interact with the instructor, peers, and native guest speakers through interviews, class discussions, individual presentations, skits, etc. Much emphasis will be placed on fluency and sufficient accuracy necessary for successful communication. Students will also develop reading skills as skimming and scanning, summarizing, and reading critically.

Vietnamese is the language of instruction, and questions or concerns that require using English are given after class time, during the instructor’s office hours or at the language table.

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS:

RULES, RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

- See the Guide’s Rules, Rights and Responsibilities

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

By enrolling in this course, each student assumes the responsibilities of an active participant in UW-Madison’s community of scholars in which everyone’s academic work and behavior are held to the highest academic integrity standards. Academic misconduct compromises the integrity of the university. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. This includes but is not limited to failure on the assignment/course, disciplinary probation, or suspension. Substantial or repeated cases of misconduct will be forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards for additional review. For more information, refer to studentconduct.wiscweb.wisc.edu/academic-integrity/.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

McBurney Disability Resource Center syllabus statement: “The University of Wisconsin-Madison supports the right of all enrolled students to a full and equal educational opportunity. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Wisconsin State Statute (36.12), and UW-Madison policy (Faculty Document 1071) require that students with disabilities be reasonably accommodated in instruction and campus life. Reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities is a shared faculty and student responsibility. Students are expected to inform faculty [me] of their need for instructional accommodations by the end of the third week of the semester, or as soon as possible after a disability has been incurred or recognized. Faculty [I], will work either directly with the student [you] or in coordination with the McBurney Center to identify and provide reasonable instructional accommodations. Disability information, including instructional accommodations as part of a student’s educational record, is confidential and protected under FERPA.”

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

Institutional statement on diversity: “Diversity is a source of strength, creativity, and innovation for UW-Madison. We value the contributions of each person and respect the profound ways their identity, culture, background, experience, status, abilities, and opinion enrich the university community. We commit ourselves to the pursuit of excellence in teaching, research, outreach, and diversity as inextricably linked goals.”

The University of Wisconsin-Madison fulfills its public mission by creating a welcoming and inclusive community for people from every background – people who as students, faculty, and staff serve Wisconsin and the world.”
