ASIALANG 407/408
Third and Fourth Semester Indonesian

Description

Level two Indonesian develops conversational and presentational skills on familiar topics with unexpected complication. This level prepares students to use the language in organized ways and cope with various authentic texts. Advanced grammar and structure are taught and presented in real life contexts. As an important component of language learning, various aspects of Indonesian culture are integrated into the language instruction.

A range of language-learning activities is available both inside and outside classroom. Indonesian is the language of instruction. Questions or concerns that require the use of English are addressed outside of class.

The course meets Monday through Friday from 08:00AM to 12:00PM on Canvas using Blackboard Collaborate feature (log in to canvas.wisc.edu using your UW account to access the Blackboard Collaborate). It is crucial that you access your Canvas regularly.

Each section has its own classroom teacher whom you will interact most of the time during SEASSI. Language learners, however, need to have exposure to different speakers. Therefore, different teacher will teach your class on week 5 to 7. You will have a chance to meet and learn from most of the Indonesian teachers in our team.

Extracurricular Activities

The program also offers Indonesian Virtual Conversation Table every Monday at 4:00 – 5:00PM. Please click here to join the Conversation Table via Zoom (Meeting ID: 814 9467 0654; Password: 611550). If there are any changes in virtual place or schedule, we will notify you in advanced. Please contact Nona Kumiani Norris, M.A., the coordinator of Indonesian Virtual Conversation Table for further information.

The weekly Indonesian Movie Discussion is organized by the Indonesian Flagship Language Initiative (IFLI) every Thursday at 4:00-4:30 PM Central Time. Please click here to join the discussion. The title of the movie will be sent by email one week prior to the discussion. Most of the movies are available on Netflix or other vendors.

Other additional extracurricular activities will be announced later. Students are strongly encouraged to participate in these opportunities.
General Instruction Objectives
By the end of the program, students can at least do the following:

Interpersonal communication:
- Students are able to use strategies in the target language to negotiate meaning when they have to deal with unfamiliar context. They can handle various registers although not always successful and use some memorized figurative expressions.
- Students can participate in conversations about familiar topics that go beyond their everyday life.
- They can talk in an organized way and with some detail about events and experiences in various time frames.
- Students can describe people, places, and things in an organized way and with some detail. They can handle a familiar situation with an unexpected complication.

Presentational (speaking and writing):
- Students can deliver organized presentations appropriate to their audience on a variety of topics including general interest, academic, and familiar professional topics.
- Students can present information about events and experiences in various time frames.

Interpretive (listening and reading):
- Students can understand the main idea and some supporting details in organized speech on a variety of topics of personal and general interest. They can follow stories and descriptions of some length and in various time frames. They can understand information presented in a variety of genres on familiar topics, even when something unexpected is expressed.

Weekly Plan

Students will receive a weekly plan every Friday that details the schedule, lessons, and other information their class will cover in the following week.

Language Portfolio

As language learning is a lifetime venture, documenting the process is important. Students are encouraged to document their language learning progress. Language portfolio documents your journey in this area. It allows you to follow your own progress, identify strengths and challenges, and adjust your learning goals.

Language portfolio is mandatory for students from the Indonesian Flagship Language Initiative (IFLI). For IFLI, particularly, language portfolio helps articulating what the students learn in the domestic segment to the overseas program. If you are not part of IFLI and interested to develop your own language portfolio, please meet the Indonesian language coordinator, Amelia J. Liwe, at her office hours.

Classroom Conduct

Learning can be uncomfortable; embrace grappling with your thoughts. Communicate with me after class, during an appointment, in a written note, or over email when you feel uncomfortable very strongly about an event or discussion relevant to class.

The classroom should be a safe environment that encourages the participation of everyone. With this goal in mind, we can agree and disagree about ideas or views to our heart’s content — that is the heart and soul of learning. We will not, however, tolerate personal attacks, or blatant sexist, racist, homophobic, or antagonistic language in the classroom. Do not insult each other or your instructor. Please respect one another’s prior experiences and viewpoints.

Respect for Diversity

It is my intention that a respect for diversity is maintained throughout the course content, activities, and with materials used. This includes respect for treatment of materials related to gender, sexuality, disability, age, socio-economic status, ethnicity, race, and culture. Feedback and suggestions are welcomed. I will make every effort to call you the name and pronoun by which you desire to be called. Please advise me of the pronoun you want me to use in class and if you want to be a called a gender-neutral pronoun.
Accessibility
I am committed to providing assistance to help you be successful in this course. Please let me know if you need any special accommodations in the curriculum, instruction, or assessments of this course to enable you to participate fully. I will try to maintain the confidentiality of the information you share with me. Students with special needs are encouraged to contact the McBurney Disability Resource Center, 905 University Avenue (263-2741), for information concerning campus disability-related policies and services.
